Subject: Annual Cultural Resources Workshop March 20-22, 2001, Modesto, California

Pursuant to the 1998 Programmatic Agreement Between the State Historic Preservation Office and the California Bureau of Land Management, an annual workshop is required to be held. The workshop is generally held in conjunction with the annual meetings of the Society for California Archaeology to take advantage of being able to attend the meetings of the Society as well as the annual workshop.

This year the workshop will be in Modesto, California at the Doubletree Inn, 1150 9TH Street, CA 93555, 209-526-6000. Room rates are $84.00 which is slightly above per diem. This memo serves to request that each manager waive the per diem requirement. There are no other satisfactory lodgings available in Modesto. The Conference room rate is also $84.00 and have been provided for the meetings.

All archaeologists and all graduate level SCEP archaeologists are required to attend the workshop. All other SCEPS, Archaeological Technicians and District Archaeological Technicians are encouraged to attend so that they can take advantage of the training as well as the conference.

One Field Manager from each portion of the state is strongly urged to attend the March 20-22 session. Greg Thomsen is requested to attend from southern California., he is the PACRAT representative from Desert Managers Group and is also on the National Preservation Board. Steve Addington is requested to attend from Central California and Linda Roush is requested to attend from Northern California. If any of the managers need to substitute please work with Russell Kaldenberg on the issue. Other managers are welcome and should get a significant amount from the training and workshop. All are invited to stay for one or two days and listen to papers on California Archeology.

The following are required to attend as the result of the Certification requirements under the Protocol:

Barstow: Sally Cunkelman, El Centro: Margaret Hangan, Needles: Johnny Murray, California Desert District: Joan Oxendine and Rolla Queen; Ridgecrest: Judyth Reed and Jack Scott; Bishop: Kirk Halford; Bakersfield: Duane Christian and Kim Cuevas; Folsom: Dean Decker and James Barnes; Redding: Eric Ritter; Ukiah: Julie Burcell; Hollister: Eric Zaborsky and Herrick Hanks; Arcata: Marlene Grangaard; Alturas: Claude Singleton; Cedarville: Penni Carmosino. CSO: Russell L. Kaldenberg and William Olsen.

The following are required to attend to become certified: Arcata: Cherly Foster-Curley; El Centro: Kellie Green; Palm Springs: Wanda Rashkow.

John Dalton, undergraduate SCEP from the California Desert District is encouraged to attend. Any other SCEPs or archaeologists not noted are also strongly encouraged to attend the workshop.
